	What Mr Narayana Rao wants is that he may draw the pension which he would be entitled to ~~if he is~~ on 16 January 24 (Rs 150 p.m.). He was allowed ~~and~~ as a special case Mr Chakrapani Iyengar, but it is doubtful whether this concession should be extended to Mr Narayana Rao whose case was entirely different. If he is thrown out he will be benefited Rs 143-7- against the furlough allowance Rs 135-8-1 he now draws. Presumably he would not like to be retired on a pension Rs 143-7-0 but would

I see from the papers in the file that this is not a case in which any relaxation of the rules can be permitted. He is not superannuated; nor has he rendered 30 years service. The grant of any pension at all to him is itself outside the rules and to grant it to him earlier than has already been decided would be a further concession without any justification.

Sir

With reference to Government order No. 5024/C.B. 62-22-9 dated 20th April 1923, directing that my furlough leave may be extended up to 16th January 1924 and that I may be retired from service thereafter, I beg to pray that Government may be kindly pleased to permit me to retire from the service immediately and to sanction to me the pension which I shall be entitled to on 16th January 1924, as I intend to practise as an advocate in order to supplement my very slender means

I beg you will be so good as to obtain early orders of Government on my above noted prayer.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient and humble servant
